the
unexpected
nature
of
linoleum

Our new collection, Unexpected Nature, brings that experience into people's everyday lives. Drawing on nature's more unusual colours and colour combinations, the result is a floor covering collection that is as surprising and as natural as the places that inspired it.

Are fresh and uncompromising and emit a tangible sense of tension. Between rough and delicate, heavy and light, cool and warm, saturated and pastel, soft and strong contrasts. The result is a collection unlike any other. One that opens the door to creating moods and effects that were previously never possible in linoleum.

Unexpected Nature. In every sense.

no matter how much we think we understand the processes of nature, nature can always do something a little different a little unexpected.
it makes you realise how small we are.
